Description Peter Rabbit - Read Aloud Edition by Beatrix Potter

Your pre-schooler will delight at the beautifully restored images and charming Read-Aloud narration of this classic.

From the Series Preface:

When I was three years old my mother told me I had to start calling her Mrs. Stack. That year Mrs. Stack, formerly Mom, became my pre-school teacher every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday morning. My mother taught pre-school for forty-six years. I was in her class for two years.

I grew up with thousands of children's books. Late every summer Mom would drive to the public library and return with boxes and boxes of children's books; new books, classic books, dumb books, dumb books, Sues books, non-sues books, picture books, fairy tales, soft books, inflatable books, miniature books, strange books. For years I wondered why everyone else was only able to withdraw five books at a time, when Mom was taking home books by the station wagon. And not returning them until Spring.

Every night, without fail, after spending all day with dozens of three and four year olds my mother would read to me with the joy and enthusiasm of a new mother to her only child, at least until I was five and was introduced to the concept of sisters. In the first four years of my life I'm quite sure that she read me at least a thousand different books.

Among my favorites were Beatrix Potter's Peter Rabbit books. They were little books, easy to hold, the perfect size for my little hands. The pictures were soothing, quiet, and happy.

But there was just enough adventure for young rabbits and little boys. Mr. McGregor and others provided ample dramatic tension, but not so much as to trouble my sleep.

So I am delighted to be able to publish these digital versions of Beatrix Potter's stories for another generation. I am also delighted to have been lucky enough to have Emma Fielding read them. The minute I heard her voice for the first time as narrator in one of her excellent audiobooks, I was certain that it was as close as possible to listening to Ms. Potter herself read the stories.

The other thing I learned that first day in pre-school was where the bunnies that lived with us each summer had been spending the school year. Their names? Flopsy and Mopsy.

At the end of this Sideways Play Book™ is a list of current and forthcoming titles and an opportunity for you to provide me with feedback. Digital publishing presents a unique opportunity for authors and publishers to interact with readers. So please, please tell me what you and your children liked about this book and what we can improve. Thanks and

Enjoy,

Customer Reviews Peter Rabbit Read by Emma Fielding by Vxtb29

What a lovely, lovely edition. Emma Fielding's voice is exactly what you imagine Beatrix Potter would sound like if she were reading the story. You just want to sit on her lap and snuggle in. This a a wonderful book to read to your child or grandchild. Better yet, let them play with it themselves - the way each word highlights as she says it was enthralling to my little one. I hope there are many many more in the series soon.

very helpful by babysitterum

I used this version of Peter Rabbit with the children I babysit. The youngest boy, 2, read with the illuminated words with me before I put him to bed. After a few time practicing read out loud to his parents when they got home. That night I showed his parents how to down load the other Sideways books.

Emma Fielding by great jahova

Emma Fieldings voice adds a wonderful new color to this chidhood favorite. Along with fantastic art this book is a must-have
